

PEDRO MAX PROMOTED TO EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

MIAMI – January 4, 2021 – Ocean Bank announced today that Pedro Max has been promoted to Executive Vice President.

“Over the past 13 years, Pedro has been instrumental in the Ocean Bank’s continued success in his roles with the branch network and banking roles,” said Agostinho Alfonso Macedo, president and CEO of Ocean Bank.

Max, who has been with Ocean Bank since 2007, heads Ocean Bank’s branch network, along with the Credit Card and Preferred Business Banking divisions.

Before joining Ocean Bank in 2007, Max was senior vice president and remedial manager in credit-risk management for Citibank’s Commercial Business Group, where he received an award for excellence in sales. He also held senior level positions at Union Planters Bank and Barnett Bank. He has a bachelor’s degree in business administration with a concentration in management from the William Paterson College at American Intercontinental University.
